

FRIENDS OF CHAMPIONS 12.3 INDIA | QUARTERLY MEETING UPDATES

• 9th Quarterly Meeting

Key highlights from the meeting included a presentation by Purpose and WRI India based on the, which identified behavior patterns causing food waste in households, hotels, restaurants, and caterers in Indore and Pune. Additionally, Institute of Livelihood Research and Training presented their behavior change strategies for sustainable waste management in Indore, Pune, and Noida.

• 8th Quarterly Meeting

Key highlights from the meeting included WRI India's findings from the working paper Tomato Trail: Tracking Food Loss and Food Waste in Madhya Pradesh, along with the screening of the video India's Lost Harvest: Understanding Food Losses. Additionally, Devyani Hari from the Centre for Responsible Business shared insights from their new report Landscaping Study for Food Waste in the HoReCa Segments in the cities of Mumbai and Pune.

• 7th Quarterly Meeting

This meeting included a presentation by Dr. Raya Das, Fellow, ICRIER, on her study on reducing post-harvest losses in Indian agriculture, focusing on wheat, maize, soybean, and paddy in Punjab, Madhya Pradesh, and Bihar, highlighting the role of education and policy interventions.

• 6th Quarterly Meeting

This meeting featured a presentation by Bee The Change on their novel up-cycling model that turns leftover restaurant food into treat bags for sale on their app, reducing waste and boosting business sales.

• 5th Quarterly Meeting

The meeting focused on actions to raise awareness and influence consumer behavior to reduce food waste in India. Dr. Shwetmala Kashyap, WRI India shared food waste statistics, while the Netherlands Embassy presented best practices and their work in Pune and Mumbai.

- 4th Quarterly Meeting
The meeting featured GreenPod Labs' innovative post-harvest solutions and sparked a discussion on minimizing food losses during storage and transit.
- 3rd Quarterly Meeting
The meeting focused on fostering multi-stakeholder collaborations to reduce food loss and waste, aligning efforts across public, private, and civil society sectors.
- 2nd Quarterly Meeting
This meeting focused on co-creating action plans and cross-learning opportunities to reduce food loss and food waste. Key discussions included crop prioritization, business case studies, and leveraging government platforms for greater impact.
- 1st Quarterly Meeting
The meeting focused on identifying key areas for collaboration, including the formation of thematic working groups, the need for robust data collection on food loss and waste, and the importance of policy and institutional support to drive systemic change. Read the conference proceedings on Friends of Champions 12.3 India network partners meeting for detailed insights.